ANOTHER RALEROAD INJUNCTION. — The Newtown Railroad Company having obtained an injunction against the Coney Island Railroad Company, restraining them from laying a track in Water street, near the Fulton ferry, the Director of the latter Company yesterday obtained an injunction restraining the Newtown Company from using their track in Water street. The matter now stands in such a position that neither company can appoach the Fulton ferry by way of Water street, until a decision is made by the Courts.

The Skating Ponds — The different skating

by the Courts.

THE SKATING PONDS —The different skating ponds were well patronized on Saturday afternoon and evening, and yesterday they were visited by thousands. The ice was in excellent condition in the morning, but towards evening it began te soften and become slushy, causing the skaters to withdraw. There were very few on the Washington Club Pond, yesterday, but the neighboring Mill Pond was as full as it could conveniently hold. One man brokthrough, and was rescued from drowning with difficulty. The several ponds in East Brooklyn were also well patronized. A difficulty occurred on the Union Pond, between the skaters, which resulted in a fight, which was, however, soo; resulted in a fight, which was, however, so quelled without serious damage to any one.
